

I have finally finished my complex batch of commissions – Thankfully, my customers were very pleased and one of them has commissioned another one.

See in photo opposite 'Infinite Bliss' in a stunning home in Pirton, - this customer kindly allowed me to take a photo of the framed hand pulled print in her beautiful home.

Very excited about my new Deep on Deep range- just launched.

I have decided to offer them in 3 sizes, I will be introducing the whole range throughout my exhibitions this year.

Having great fun with the finish of craquelure on these float mounted images. They are already going down well with

Interior Designers and customers who have seen them, so we shall see how they fare !.

The Art of Poetry at Obsidian Gallery

21st Mar. - 23rd April

I am pleased that my image entitled 'Emerging fire' has been selected for this Exhibition and is also appearing in the Art & Poetry Book published by Obsidian . Steve Thorp, the gifted poet who I have worked with before, wrote a beautiful poem called 'Your Firelight' to go with the strong image, thanks Steve.

This exhibition is also linked to World Book Night on Wed 23rd April

So why not come along to see the beautiful images, hear some of the lovely poems being read and enjoy a cool glass of wine.
