

*Just got back from a fantastic holiday in Egypt – well we should say an experience
A full on grand tour with private access to many of the great sights-inside the great pyramid and under the Sphinx to name just a few .
Hit the ground running when we returned with delivery of a big order – fantastic house in London and collection of artwork from an exhibition that had finished while I was away – A mixed bag in regards to sales but picked up two commissions after a customer saw my work at Letchworth – so all good.*

Sky Arts

Had an interesting phone call just before we got on the flight, Sky Arts wanted to borrow an A2 printing press for their up and coming show on Landscape Artist of the year which is being filmed now and will be viewed in the Autumn . After a bit of organising- a promise of an mention in the credits we delivered it the day before we left. Going on set next week to see the production process !
