

Well when is the summer coming? We are at the end of June and still have not seen any sun. Thank goodness we had a great holiday but even that seems ages ago . Getting ready for the large BBH exhibition in Harpenden that is coming up details below , Lots of advertising in place so should be a good turn out .Working hard as have had a number of very good customers coming to my studio buying up a lot of my large good pieces so that has made up for slow sales from Hatfield etc

.....2013 is so up and down !!!.....

Thank you to all the BBH members who participated in Hatfield Living Craft – a bit of a wet and damp affair, I am afraid – decided I'm not into outdoor events anymore. Check out my new great Summer deals on printing press and workshops!!
