

Just installed the Hertford solo exhibition, entitled Spirit of the Earth with some new images and new poems supplied by Steve Thorp - they are great – I am so lucky . This is the final leg of the 'Spirit of the Earth' mini tour, so some of you may have seen it at the other two venues.

I think it looks the best at the Hertford Theatre Gallery, being a very airy gallery space with a good footfall – so you never know .

I'll be there on the Sat 31st Oct - 10 :30 - 3:00 for Meet the Artist day.

I'll be creating a new printing plate for one of my London clients – but will be very happy to see you and show you around.

I am being filmed so that will be interesting !! (I always look dreadful on film - about 100 years old - and that's with makeup too!!)

Glad to see Sky Arts has honoured their promise to put us on the credits at the end of Landscape Artist of the Year – it has been so interesting still a few weeks to go . They have asked to use our press for next years Sky Portrait Artist of the year – so that should be good .

Great news - if you have £ 9 million to spare and want a beautiful house in Highgate which has just won a prodigious award - check out the link below .

I supplied the hand pulled prints for this job for this London Interior designer – so very excited to see the promotional video with some of my images in the footage.

I was commissioned to supply 10 framed prints for this delightful house in Highgate - three were very big, they went into other rooms not shown on the video, which is a shame – but they are not trying to sell my work, but I know it is to make the house look stylish for the multi millionaires who will be looking around.

Well done to Sarah Ward Associates, the interior designers for winning an amazing award for all her team's efforts.

Maybe I will pick up one of the Millionaire visitors who may want to buy some more art !!!

Want to see beautiful art at affordable prices – Kim is able to create images from her collection in clients bespoke colour ways – also create new designs to suit customer's requirements.

Finished off 4 large commissions this month - all went well
 The customers were pleased with their finished pieces.
 This one is called 'Gaia Echo' made from three plates – a lot of crackle and hand finishing – it matches the customers curtains to a tee.

 a bit big for my upstairs studio but have to put them somewhere, while I am working on them.- I need more ROOM !!
