

Well, back from holiday to rainy Britain !!!
 Tan covered up but feeling energized and raring to go.
 Mixed result on exhibitions while I was on holiday
 The BBH exhibition in Obsidian gallery in Bucks did well – strong exhibition of hand pulled prints.
 Poor results from Princess Helena this year, but you win some and lose some.
 Last exhibition below for this year - I have 22 pictures in this solo show in the Café Dutch connected to the Dutch Nursery on the Great North Road sort of in Hatfield or Potters Bar.
 Big display area, don't know who will visit this exhibition but if you are passing it may be worth a look .
