

Just put in the Letchworth Arts Centre Exhibition

3rd – 26th March - Spirit of the Earth

The first of the Spirit of the Earth mini tour.

Steve Thorp's poems are beautiful – these accompany the artwork – I think they are some of his best !

Very pleased with the look – quite small but they had painted the walls to create a very good finish for my work

Came across Health & safety law today – apparently not capable of using a drill to put up my pictures – so they provided a little handy man (he was little too !) who had been trained in how to use a drill !!!

After my initial moaning, went on to enjoy him as he was my personal handy man and he did everything I wanted - I did not lift a finger! - Can't be bad.

Very pleased - just finished the big commission for the 8 hand pulled prints for the large London job !!

The customer was delighted – I was too - hope to see some photos of them in the house.
