

..... Happy New Year 2013 .....

Last year went out with a bang with 3 exhibitions in December meaning life at home got delayed and was reduced to food shopping on Christmas eve after the locusts had been, managed to scabble around to keep the family from starvation and I collapsed only just after they had gone. The last exhibition in 2012 connected to my U.K. tour at St David's Cathedral in Wales looked so beautiful. The preview was very well attended, unlike a lot around here, and I felt it was very well received. It seems I have been a bit spoilt and cannot expect to exhibit in places like that very often. Mind you my next exhibition on the tour is at the beautiful glass hexagon which is part of the Hertford Theatres gallery, I will also be showing some of my new work on a separate panel. There is an open invitation to the meet the artists day at Hertford Theatre Gallery on Sat 9th Feb for those of you who live nearby and want to brave the snow !!!! 4 inches has landed outside my studio while I have been writing this newsletter !!! Opening times 12 – 3 pm , 5 – 7.30 pm
